

ISC Regulatory Change Forum 2023

Are you working within regulatory change in the Investment Management industry?

Our forum can help you.....

ISC's clients see great benefit in our two-monthly forum. It is designed to facilitate open discussion about issues encountered with regulatory change either generically, or specific to a particular regulation

Investment Management regulatory change experts share knowledge and experience, learn from each other, and find ways to achieve success in the deployment of their regulatory initiatives

Topics included:

- Views on current regulatory change
- Market insights and opinions
- Horizon scanning for upcoming legislation
- Regulatory change discipline and specialism in regulatory change practises
